

'PANAMA CRUISE'

OCTOBER 23 - NOVEMBER 8, 2009

Day 1 - Friday, October 23, 2009

Arrive San Diego, CA

Today we will depart from our home cities and arrive in San Diego. We will explore this lovely city before embarking on an amazing adventure aboard the Celebrity 'Infinity'.

Day 2 - Saturday, October 24, 2009

San Diego

This morning we will enjoy 10 stops along the San Diego Old Town Trolley Route - narrated by a knowledgeable and experienced tour conductor. San Diego is a city unlike any other, and has so much to see. We will go back in time and visit Old Town San Diego, viewing the beginning days of San Diego. We will be able to hop on - hop off at many different attractions. Following are some of the attractions the trolley stops at: Old Town San Diego State Park, San Diego Harbor, Sea Port Village, the Marnia, Horton Plaza (shopping), Gaslamp Quarter, Coronado Island, San Diego Zoo and Balboa Park.

Hotel: Holiday Inn Express Old Town

Day 4 - Monday, October 26, 2009

At sea

We will spend the day at sea and can enjoy the many amenities the ship has to offer— casino, spa, entertainment, shops or perhaps just sit back and relax as we sail south to our first destination.

Day 5 - Tuesday, October 27, 2009

Cabo San Lucas

This southernmost enclave on the tip of the Baja Peninsula features unearthly rock formations, cantinas owned by rock stars and hundreds of ways to enjoy yourself on, in, under and close to the water. Cabo is also blessed with a coastline that's ideal for kayak exploration, snorkelling, whale-watching or perhaps a romantic rendezvous.

Day 6 - Wednesday, October 28, 2009

At sea

Another wonderful day at sea—time to pamper ourselves, enjoy the company of fellow travelers, and relax in our lovely surroundings.

Day 7 - Thursday, October 29, 2009

Acapulco

From the people to the bay, sensual Acapulco is known for its beauty. Its world-famous beaches offer up the sun and surf for different agendas, whether you're in the mood for exhilaration or serenity.

Day 8 - Friday, October 30, 2009

Huatulco

This is indeed a place where recreation and ecology are in perfect harmony. At the foot of the Sierra del Sur Mountains, Huatulco is actually made up of nine distinct bays. The turquoise waters are home to an abundance of sea life and provide a delightful aquatic playground for visitors. On land, shopping and dining establishments are outnumbered only by the number of beaches in the area: thirty to be exact.

B L D

Day 9 - Saturday, October 31, 2009

At sea

Today we can spend time sipping exotic drinks by the pool, taking in a movie, or perhaps spending time in the casino. No matter what our choices are we will spend another relaxing day at sea.

Day 10 - Sunday, November 1, 2009

Puntarenas

Located along the Pacific coast of Costa Rica, Puntarenas is a great place to see native wildlife ranging from scarlet macaws to the alpha predator of Central America: the jaguar. Surfers from around the world regard this region of Costa Rica as prime surfing waters. As one of the country's leading fishing ports, Puntarenas is the perfect place to enjoy fresh seafood, including ceviche de corvine - bits of fresh fish marinated in lime juice with onions, peppers and spices.

Day 11 - Monday, November 2, 2009

At sea

Once again we will be able to relax and enjoy the many shipboard amenities.

ACAPULCO, MX

PANAMA CANAL

CELEBRITY 'INFINITY'

Day 12 - Tuesday, November 3, 2009

Panama Canal and Cristobal

"The land of the divided, the world united." It's hard to imagine a more fitting motto for what in no uncertain terms irrevocably changed the Western Hemisphere forever. For fifty miles the canal transects the exotic emerald jungles of Panama and gives one an appreciation of what a Herculean task it was to build this waterway before the advent of computers and giant earth movers. A star among the fabulous Panama itineraries, the port of Cristobal serves the cities of Colón and Panama City. It's a popular stepping off point for travelers wishing to explore the many sights and attractions both in the interior of Panama and along the coast. Located in the city of Colón, Panama, Cristobal Pier is best known as a stop on the Panama Canal. But it also offers visitors a wide range of attractions, including access to both the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean. In fact, it is one of the few places where you could actually go swimming in both bodies of water in the same day. Colón was established in 1850 by Americans building the Transcontinental Railroad.

Day 13 - Wednesday, November 4, 2009

At sea

We will have time today to reflect on the many sights that have amazed us on this incredible journey, and of course, speculate on those still to come.

Day 14 - Thursday, November 5, 2009

Colombia

Founded in 1533, Cartagena is the picture-perfect Spanish-colonial village. A fortress wall surrounds the historic village's pastel-coloured architecture, quaint streets and fine cathedrals, containing them like jewels. Stroll through the walled old town (Ciudad Murallada), shop the boutiques housed in what used to be dungeons, and otherwise enjoy a jaunt through a rich history.

Day 15 - Friday, November 6, 2009

At sea

And now we will cruise north as our journey is coming to an end. Still time to enjoy this beautiful ship!

Day 16 - Saturday, November 7, 2009

Today is our last chance to explore the fabulous 'Infinity'. Traveling close to the Caribbean islands, the scenery will be beautiful today.

Day 17 - Sunday, November 8, 2009

Fort Lauderdale, FL

And now we will disembark the Celebrity 'Infinity' and be transported to the airport to depart for home - each of us with special tales and memories of the 'PANAMA CRUISE'.
