

CELEBRATE LIFE

From milestones such as yearly birthdays to major wins like graduation(s) or retirement, there are endless reasons to celebrate in this life. Each new event experience deserves a proper commemoration surrounded by the people you love the most. Celebration travel presents the opportunity of exploring new and exciting places while spending time with those most important to you. What better way to mark a major life event?

Below we offer itineraries for every kind of traveler anticipating every kind of celebration. Let's explore!

ADVENTURE TRAVEL WITH PRIVATE SMALL GROUP TOURS

These trips are for those travelers that are always looking to spice things up. What better way to celebrate a new chapter than by experiencing something entirely new! Bring along your closest friends and family to share the moment and take the time to get even closer to one another.

GRADUATION TOUR OF AUSTRALIA

The weightlessness and freedom that comes from graduating is an unmatched feeling. Collect your closest college friends and head down under for an unforgettable two-week trip through red rock deserts, dramatic coastlines, and one of the best wine countries in the world.

ITINERARY

Days 1-3 | Explore Sydney. Eat, drink, and sightsee through Australia's oldest city, just be sure to get plenty of rest to combat any jet lag.

Days 4-8 | Drive the coast north to Fraser Island. Plan to take surf lessons in Arwarra and spend a whole day exploring Byron Bay, the surf town where the 1960s are still alive and well. Enjoy the nightlife of Brisbane and kayak through the Noosa Everglades.

Days 9-13 | Take a few days to explore Arlie Beach and the Whitsundays. There just isn't enough time to see all these 74 islands have to offer. They are home to beaches, quaint towns, access to the Great Barrier Reef, and plenty of outdoor activities. The best part is that boating between the islands doesn't require a license which means anyone can take a few days to explore them.

Days 14-15 | While there is plenty of fun to have in Cairns from spending the day on the water or taking advantage of the cosmopolitan offerings of a major city, one of the biggest draws of Cairns is its proximity to lush rainforests. Take a hike or see the trees from above with a skyway tram ride.

ACTIVE FAMILY VACATION IN COSTA RICA

Costa Rica is the perfect destination for families that like to get out there. Spend a few hours hiking a volcano or zip-lining through lush greenery. Hire a private tour guide to find howler monkeys, anteaters, and sloths in the wild.

ITINERARY

Day 1 | Relax in San Jose. Walk through the streets of the city, popping in and out of museums like the National Museum, Children's Museum, and the Museo de Jade.

Days 2-4 | Costa Rica is known for the cloud forests of Monteverde. Take a few days to see the beauty of this high altitude forest yourself while also making time to visit coffee plantations, take cooking classes on local cuisine, and ziplining through the treetops!

Days 5-6 | Hike up the side of the Arenal Volcano for some of the best views in the country. If you aren't up to the 5,000-foot climb, there are plenty of beautiful paths through the national park complete with waterfalls and ziplining. After your hike, head to the nearby town of La Fortuna for shopping and some traditional Costa Rican cuisine.

Days 7-8 | Finish out the week with some time on the beach at Playa Portero. Take advantage of some of the best waves in Central America with a family surf lesson or take a jungle boat cruise through Palo Verde National Park before heading back to San Jose and home.

RETIREMENT SAFARI IN TANZANIA

Retirement is often seen as uncharted territory, a second adolescence. Suddenly your world is no longer confined to the 9 to 5. You have no meetings and no quarterly check-ins, just the freedom to go and do what you want. What better way to celebrate this new freedom than to experience somewhere unlike anywhere you've been before?

ITINERARY

Day 1 | Fly into the city of Arusha. Spend your first couple of days in the country exploring all that the city has to offer, like the afrofuturistic Cultural Heritage Museum and the traditional Massai street market.

Day 2-3 | Have lunch with a local family in Mto wa Mbu village before taking a guided cultural walk through the area to learn more about the rich history of the area, which boasts over 120 different cultural tribes. The following day, take a wildlife safari drive around Lake Manyara before heading to the Serengeti.

Days 4-6 | Spend the next four days spotting the big five - lions, leopards, rhinoceroses, elephants, and buffalo - in the Serengeti. Stay in the luxury camp tents throughout the park and let your personal guide bring you through the brush as dawn and dusk to see the animals when they are most active.

Day 7 | Visit a Maasai village in Ngorongoro Crater and learn how these semi-nomadic people have been living traditionally in the area for millennia.

Day 8-12 | Finish off your trip, with a relaxing beach-stay on the sandy shores of the Zanzibar coast. Imagine a private villa right on the beach complete with full house staff to make sure your every need is met.

OCEAN CRUISE

When most people think of an ocean cruise, they imagine the monolith ships that carry thousands of passengers through the Caribbean and Gulf. But there is a better way to travel the seven seas. Intimate luxury ocean cruises offer the benefits of bringing travelers to smaller, less tourist-heavy ports. The focus on these ships is on cultural excursions and luxury experiences you won't find on the bigger ships.

BIRTHDAY CRUISE THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL

We tend to focus on milestone birthdays - 21, 30, 60 - but every birthday should be celebrated as something special. This time around, gather your closest friends and family and set sail for a once-in-a-lifetime experience. The canal has a range of different attractions from sandy beaches to thick rainforests to the cobblestoned streets of culture-rich Panamanian cities.

ITINERARY

Days 1-6 | The first few days of the trip are spent on board, cruising from Los Angeles to sunny Puerto Vallarta. This beautiful and historic resort city can compete with the Riviera with its sunny beaches and high-end shopping. After another day of cruising, stop at Huatulco for a day of mezcal tasting and shopping.

Days 7-9 | After leaving Mexico, you'll head to San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua a couple of days away. Spend a romantic day touring the cobblestoned streets of this historic colonial city at the base of a volcano. The following day, rafting down the Corobici River looking out for iguanas, monkeys, and otters.

Days 10-13 | Expect daily excursions through Panama, Costa Rica, and Columbia as you make your way through the canal. Learn about the area's rich history in the gold industry in Panama city and canoe through the mangrove tunnels in Cartagena.

Days 14-15 | The last days of the cruise are spent on the open ocean heading to Fort Lauderdale and prepare to journey home.

HONEYMOON TAHITIAN CRUISE

ITINERARY

Day 1 | Shop, dine, and sunbathe your way through the quaint city of Papeete in preparation for the rest of your trip.

Day 2-3 | Spend the day touring Huahine by ATV. See ancient temples, snorkel colorful reefs, and sip on tasty coconut cocktails as you make your way around the island before stopping for a dip in a secluded lagoon.

Days 4-6 | Take a detour to the Cook Islands to learn from local guides the ancient Polynesian stories of supernatural beings. Tour the island from beautiful natural swimming pools to mountain tops with breathtaking vistas to running plantations.

Days 7-8 | As the resort spot of the Society Islands, Bora Bora has plenty to offer visitors. Spend the day relaxing beside perfect turquoise waters or swim in a private lagoon. Spend a day in romantic bliss with a picnic followed by a couple's massage on the water.

Days 9-11 | The island of Moorea is known for its stunning natural beauty. Plan to spend the day hiking through the mountains or taking a guided tour with a professional photographer who will bring your vacation photos to a new level.

The South Pacific has been a favorite destination of newlyweds for decades. Luxury small ship ocean cruises offer a whole new way to experience the islands, such as a sailing tour of Tahiti. Spend evening silently cutting through the ocean and days swimming in hidden lagoons or taking a day trip to see the endless stars over Vanuatu.

MULTI-GENERATION ANNIVERSARY ALASKAN CRUISE

When it comes to family reunion trips, Alaska generally isn't the first place to come to mind, but the Alaskan coast is considered one of the best destinations for cruise travel every year. For starters, the midnight sun means more hours in the day for excursions and exploring.

ITINERARY

Day 1 | Whittier is a port town accessible only by boat, making it a unique stop. Tour the historic town for a day and learn what life in Alaska is like while experiencing the beauty of the mountains which surround the village.

Day 3-4 | The next two days are spent in the comfort of the ship while cruising by the 76-mile long Hubbard Glacier and through Glacier National Park. Step outside to see the miraculous beauty of the glaciers and to spot whales swimming through the freezing waters or stay inside for dining, entertainment, and kids-only special events.

Day 5 | Skagway is known for its charming gold-rush era architecture. The town acts as a gateway to the Yukon. There are plenty of family-friendly attractions to be found around town like the historical reenactments and the beautiful train ride through the Yukon.

Day 6 | As the state capital, Juneau is the largest metropolitan area in the state. The city offers flights over the glaciers, dog sledding adventures, and the Glacier Gardens.

Days 7-9 | The final Alaskan stop is in Ketchikan to watch carvers creating totem poles at the Saxman Native Village or hike through the Alaska Rainforest Sanctuary. The last few days are spent on the water headed for Vancouver. Plan to spend a day taking advantage of the cultural touchpoints of a major city like the Aquarium, Gastown Park, and Chinatown.

RIVER CRUISE

Get the five-star resort experience while also seeing as many destinations as possible. Luxury river cruises offer the best of both worlds, so there is no compromising necessary.

BIRTHDAY CRUISE DOWN THE MEKONG RIVER

The Mekong flows across 3,000 miles in Asia. Make this birthday memorable by touring through Cambodia and Vietnam. Spend one day touring ancient temples and meditating with Buddhist monks and the next shopping the open air markets of Phnom Penh and Ho Chi Minh.

ITINERARY

Day 1-4 | The first few days are spent onshore in Siem Reap. You'll visit ancient temples like Angkor Wat and Angkor Thom as well as a traditional noodle-making village and a traditional Cambodian Aspara dance performance.

Day 5-6 | Meet the locals of Cambodia. Take an ox cart ride through the country and have lunch at a small farm. Partake in water blessing at Angkor Ban and visit the silversmith to see how he works his craft the same way his ancestors have for centuries.

Day 7 | Tour through Phnom Penh on a private cyclo. Visit the Royal Palace, National Museum, and Silver Pagoda.

Day 8-10 | Stops in Vietnam include a demonstration in conical hat making, rice wine tastings, and cooking classes led by local chefs using traditional recipes and local ingredients.

Day 11-12 | This multi-day stop in Ho Chi Minh gives you the chance to have a drink at the famous Rex Hotel or take part in the Cu Chi Tunnels excursion. There is plenty of sightseeing to be done in this beautiful and modern cultural center.

RETIREMENT NILE RIVER CRUISE

Retirement should be a time for you to seize the day and do the things you never had time or money for before. Take that first step into your new life of freedom and excitement with a cruise from Cairo through Luxor to witness the splendor of Egypt and the Valley of the Kings.

ITINERARY

Days 1-3 | As Egypt's capital, Cairo is the cultural center of the country. Three days is the very least you'll need to tour all of the city's museums, monuments, and outdoor bazaars.

Days 4-5 | Luxor is one of the greatest open-air museums in the world. Travel through the temples on a private tour guided by an egyptologist. Later visit the Luxor Library and Heritage Center to learn more about the area through the ages.

Day 6-7 | Aswan is home to the Nubian people. Learn some of the traditional customs of the people and have lunch with a local family between visits to the Philae and Kom Ombo temples.

Day 8 | The temple of Horus on the west bank of the river is one of Egypt's most well-preserved temples. Explore the temple in the afternoon and spend the evening with a local Edfu chef for a tasting menu of traditional Egyptian cuisine.

ANNIVERSARY EUROPEAN RIVER CRUISE

Europe is full of romantic destinations from Paris to Prague. Rather than pick a single location for your romantic trip for two, see them all. A cruise on the Rhine and Moselle can bring you through four different countries so you can get a taste of all that Europe has to offer.

ITINERARY

Day 1-2 | Spend your first days of vacation cruising Amsterdam's famous canals or taking a bike tour through the quaint cobblestoned streets.

Day 3 | Take a walk through Cologne Heights or hop on a bicycle for a guided tour of the city's Jewish heritage.

Days 4-6 | The next few days are spent cruising through Germany's famed wine region. Tour through medieval castles and taste wine straight from the barrel before taking a cable car up to the famed Niederwald Monument.

Day 7 | Luxembourg is one of the smallest countries in the world. Taste your way through the different wines produced in this micro-country.

Days 8-9 | Finish off your trip in Paris. Visit the Ateliers de Lumières or plan a lunch al fresco next to the Seine.

A tropical sunset scene with palm trees and a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm orange glow over the sky and the water. The foreground is filled with the silhouettes of palm fronds, some of which are in sharp focus. The beach is visible in the middle ground, with waves gently lapping at the shore. The overall mood is peaceful and relaxing.

SUN SEEKERS

Sometimes the best way to celebrate is with a little sunshine and a relaxing lounge on the beach.

BIRTHDAY BASH IN COSTA RICA

Costa Rica is full of excitement and adventure, the perfect way to ring in a new year. Bring your most adventurous friends and plenty of sunscreen for a week on the water.

ITINERARY

Days 1-2 | Sip on poolside cocktails and walk along the resort's private white sand beach as you get acclimated to Costa Rica.

Day 3 | Take a day-long excursion to Borinquen near the Rincon de la Vieja National Park. The trip includes horseback riding through the mountains, a zip-lining tour through the forest, and a relaxing dip in a natural mud bath and hot springs.

Day 4-6 | Fill out your days at the resort by taking advantage of the countless programs and activities offered right on site. Learn to dance traditional Latin dances like salsa, merengue, and cumbia or spend a day on the water with paddleboard yoga. Be sure to save time to hit the spa for some much-deserved pampering, it is your birthday after all.

DESTINATION WEDDING IN PUERTO VALLARTA

Mexico is a popular location for destination weddings thanks to its natural beauty, rich culture, and unbeatable climate. The city of Puerto Vallarta offers plenty of options for weddings big and small and even has options for mini-honeymoons after you say "I do."

ITINERARY

Day 1-2 | Spend time with your guests exploring Puerto Vallarta with Hyatt Ziva as your home base. Shop your way through the local boutiques of the cobblestoned old city or get the perfect wedding day tan by lounging on the beach.

Day 3 | Your ceremony and reception at the resort, taking advantage of the countless beautiful vistas and indoor reception areas. Spend the night with your wedding party knowing that everyone is just a short walk away from their rooms.

Day 4-6 | Embark on small excursions with your wedding party to see as much of Mexico as possible. Take a cruise to a beachside pyramid for dinner and a show under the stars or tour through the surf town of Sayulita complete with surf lessons and a chance to make some traditional Huichol crafts.

HONEYMOON IN TAHITI

What makes Tahiti so romantic? Is it the lush volcanic mountains? The turquoise sea? The private suites over the water? It's hard to say, but Tahiti is voted one of the top honeymoon destinations every year.

ITINERARY

Days 1-2 | Spend the days in Papeete relaxing at the resort or hiking through Papeete Valley finding rushing rivers and breathtaking waterfalls.

Days 3-5 | Take some time while in Moorea to relax together. Book a couple's massage or a romantic meal on the resort's beach. Book a safari through the volcano's crater or tour through a pineapple plantation, complete with a taste of the freshest pineapple you've ever tasted.

Days 6-9 | When not relaxing together in your private bungalow overlooking the water, snorkel the reef or book a water safari to swim with the sharks and the manta rays around the island. Spend your evenings in lavish restaurants overlooking the water.
